

ABSTRACT

A rear lighting system for an automobile having the ability to serve several functions and to detect and compensate for burned out or damaged lighting elements.